Collaborate

PeerLibrary provides a knowledge collaboration layer on top of academic publications. See and share real-time highlights and annotations with the world, a group you're working with, or keep them private.

Follow authors and other users to understand their perspectives, make connections, and discover new ideas.

Drive Progress

Participate in open discussion that drives ideas and research forward. Whether you are a novice, expert, or stakeholder, PeerLibrary provides a supportive environment for you to learn, ask questions, make comments, and collaboratively evaluate academic literature.

Be Open

Open knowledge. Open access. Open source.

At PeerLibrary, we believe that knowledge should be open and collaborative. Come join us:
